

BIO DATA 24497 ETUENI QIOLELE CAUCAU

Upon graduation from OCS Portsea on 14 December 1984, Mr. Caucau was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant into the Fiji Infantry Corps and posted as a Platoon Commander with the Fiji Infantry Regiment Depot at Queen Elizabeth Barracks, Suva.

During his career spanning 24 years 10 months continuous service Mr. Caucau served with distinction both locally and overseas with the First Battalion Fiji Infantry Regiment in UNIFIL South Lebanon and also with the Second Battalion in MFO Sinai Egypt. He attended numerous military courses, conferences and seminars in Fiji and also overseas and is a fellow graduate of the CPLA Nanjing Staff & Command College in Nanjing China. Along his career he managed to attain a Bachelor of Laws Degree (LLB) and also a Master's Degree in International Maritime Law. He held the appointment of Director Army Legal Services from 2000 to 2002 before being posted to the RFMF Strategic HQ to hold the appointment of Chief Staff Officer Legal.

He retired from the RFMF on 31st January 2007 at the rank of Lieutenant Colonel holding the appointment of Director Human Resources Management.

Upon retirement he took up the post of Manager HR at Pacific Fishing Company Limited, Fiji's largest fishery operations, for seven years from 01st June 2007 to May 2014.

LTCOL (ret'd) CAUCAU is now the full time church administrator at the Christian Mission Fellowship International World Harvest Centre Church in Kinoya Fiji, arguably the largest church in the Pacific.