

Adams Alley

Dedicated to R.S.M WOI Bill Adams

Potential Officers and Gentlemen,

We live at Portsea by the sea,

We have a man who drills us every day.

His warcry is "up pause, two three".

Now if you walk down Adams Alley,

And, if you fail to swing your arms,

He'll run you in, he'll run you in,

He'll run you in, he'll run you in,

'Cos he's the R.S.M.!

He'll run you in, he'll run you in,

He'll run you in, he'll run you in,

'Cos he's the R.S.M.

So, swing your arms up higher,

"Up, pause, two three"!

The main "brains" behind the lyrics etc were D.C. Cpl Bill Woods, D.C. <sup>CPT</sup> Phil Permen &
D.C. Cpl John Roden & D.C. John Williams

Our company of Cadets started out with 72 cadets,

1 x WOII Geoff Pelley-Adams, 2x Sgts Lawrence Doyle &
Colin Cunningham, There were 6 corporals, C.M. (Bill) Woods, John Roden, John Colquhoun, John Merrick, Tom Roberts & Phil Permen.

1 Platoon was commanded by Capt. Bob Wilson &

2 Platoon " " " " " Capt. John Lewis

The Chief Instructor was Maj Judy Garland M.C. assisted by Lt. Chick Jarman - mad rugby player & bird fancier! 6. 6. '23

Dedicated to Capt John Lewis

Johnnie Lewis is a clown, is a clown,

His lectures always bring the ceilings down ceilings down.

On night manoeuvres he is simply grand,

He always picks a spot with dirty sand.
dirty sand.

He is 2 platoon commander, he is
2 platoon commander.

And you ought to take a gander at the state that his platoon is always in,
always in! in!

His mo is growing very long, very long

And so to end this little song, little song.

At Cabinet lectures you will always hear him say

Play Youdhi play !!

There was a ditty for Capt Bob Wilson, but I can't recall all the words, regrettably.

Thundering boxes standing in a row,
who taught us so?

Uncle Bob you answer.

He has taught us many, ~~many~~ <sup>more</sup> times

"One hole, two holes or four; .....

saddy so many more !! etc etc
